EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 5, line 7, delete "the computer", and insert --a computer--

REASON FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure: Yuasa et al (US 3796,818) discloses electrode connecting apparatus for furnaces. Hardin (US 3,898,364) discloses combined suspension device for holding, contacting, slipping and torquing electric furnace electrodes. Blackmore (US 3,107,267) discloses electrode contact apparatus.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: allowance of claims 1-7 is indicated because the prior art of record does not show or suggest slipping cylinders which are connected to and between both slipping clamps and electrical load regulating cylinders which are connected to act between the ring beam and fixed structure above the furnace roof, characterized in that the electrode column includes at least one resiliently yieldable load resisting device which is located between the upper slip clamp and structure on the ring beam and on which the electrode, when clamped only by the upper slip clamp may totally be supported and means for measuring the load induced yield of the load resisting device as recited in claims 1-3; and the step of measuring the force required to move the electrode by means only of the engaged upper slipping clamp against predetermined and comparable reaction forces acting against movement of the electrode and computing these parameters to determine the mass and so the length of the electrode relatively to the theoretical mass of the undamaged electrode at the time of movement as recited in claims 4-7.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
